

Special Needs Trust & Estate Planning

*How will special needs affect my long term planning? Can I save money to care
for my child?
What if something happens to me?*

NOTICE LOCATION CHANGE!

What happens when something happens to you? A team of specialists in this topic will be coming to share information about Special Needs Trust, Conservatorship, and Guardianship. Come with your estate planning questions and take home valuable information that will help with your family's long-term planning.

Martin Pierce is a certified estate planning law specialist and has experience in the legal areas of special needs planning, trusts, conservatorships, guardianships, Medicaid, and a host of other legal transactions. www.Martinpiercelaw.com

Jeffery Babb is a certified financial planner and has experience in finding and implementing responsible money solutions for their clients current and future financial needs and goals.

Cumberland Trust will be present as well to share their estate planning and trustee services.

A Panel Question & Answer session will follow individual presentations.
