

Looking for a Bible Study with other Caregivers?

Struggling with how to process disability in light of the Gospel?
Feeling like most Bible studies don't speak to the challenges of raising a child with special needs or caring for a loved one?
Trying to wrap your head and heart around how you can love someone so much and yet struggle with the challenges you face every day?
Questioning if it is possible to lament the disability without lamenting the person?
Don't have a church home, but need spiritual support and the fellowship of others ?

Our Bible studies are designed specifically for caregivers.

Are you a family looking for hope?

Are you looking for a Bible study that will address the challenges you face every day as a caregiver?

- Learn to see disability in light of the Gospel.
- Find strength in God's Word for the new opportunities that raising a child with special needs or caring for a loved one brings.
- Learn strategies for facing day to day challenges of caregiving.
- Acknowledge the realities of caregiving, but learn how to begin looking for God's fingerprints in the circumstances of your life.
- Connect with others to find spiritual support and fellowship of others who understand your life.

There is HOPE for the caregiving journey!
